Diesel, when you say the small gas grill is just not working out, what is keeping it from working out? I am thinking about going the cheap route this summer and getting a small, portable, gas grill for the toon rather than spend the money on a nice Magma -- at least try it for a season is what I am thinking since they can be bought for $30.Rated 4 out of 5 by looney toon from love this will be using this on overniters, it looks like it should set up about as fast as you could a tent of similar size. got the black one as the better half has extreme light alergy`s in the early am hours,, plus it matches my bimini. fabric looks to be good quality. the only things id say bad are that this is not a custom cover, its a one size fits ...
